DAKIN'S PURE VOLATILE EUCALYPTUS OIL,

DISTILLED FROM THE LEAVES OF SELECTED PECIES OF EUCALYPTUS.

LUCALYPTUS OIL has long taken a foremost place as a "household remedy" in Australia. When applied externally it has a powerful stimulant and soothing action but does not blister the most sensitive skin, and no application known will so quickly subdue the pain of muscular rheumatism. Taken internally in small doses, it acts as a powerful stimulant and antipasmodic whilst its secondary action induces sleep. The penetrating agreeable vapor of the Oil is sedative, and when inhaled relieves | Chineso. Asthma, Bronchitia, Catarrh and Sore

Throat. It is also a most powerful antiseptic and germicide, being three times as effectual as | nese. Carbolic Acid in preventing development of Bacteria, its uses in this direction being very numerous.

The active properties of the Oil depend upon a Terpene called Eucalyptol and we guarantee this Oil, prepared specially for us. to contain the largest obtainable percentage of Encalyptol and twice that of the ordinary Eucalyptus Oil of commerce. It can be used with great benefit in all Throat and Lung Affections, and its sedstive stimulant properties make it an invaluable application in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, &c., whilst its powerful antiseptic and germicide action is well exhibited as a dressing in Wounds, Ulcers, Burns, Scalds, Sores, Ringworm, &c.

Dakin's specially refined Oil is sold in oz. and 4 oz. bottles at cts. 50 and $1.00: Full Directions for use enclosed with each CAUTION.

Inferior samples of Eucalyptus Oil distilled from any kind of Eucalyptus leaf have little or no medical action and should be carefully avoided.

Owing to the financial inability of the Pahang Government to carry on any publie works for the present Mr R. W. Smith, B.A., B.I.A., head of the Public Works Department in Pahang, is about to relinquish charge. It is very regrettable that Pahang should be unable to provide itself with the score or so of miles of road so urgently wanted, and that its Public Works Department should be the quarter in which retrenchment has to take effect.

Ir is stated (says a naval contemporary) that the Plover, Pigmy and Redpole are to leave the China Station and he relieved by a cruiser, an arrangement which can scarcely recommend itself to anyone who is familiar with the sudden and widespread risings of the Chinese against the 'foreign devils, whom a gunboat at every threatened port is the only means of protection. A single cruiser trying to protect three ports would probably find the mischief done on her arrival at any of them. The three gunboats in question have already been more than two years in commission, in spite of which Africa is said to be the destination of the Plover and the Pigmy. The former vessel has just got through six months at Singapore, Siam, and Borneo.

TROUBLE IN PERSIA. New York, September 4. - The Tribune to-morrow will publish a cable letter from Edmund Yates in which he says: If what I hear be true, and the information comes from an unusually reliable source. public attention is liable to be very soon diverted from Iquique to Ispahan, for revolution at the present moment is slowly but surely brewing in Persia, and the breaking of the political storm is not likely to be long delayed. in its character. The priests and students are to a man in the camp of the progresssionists, and the provailing discontent is being industriously fanned by a paper called Kanhan or Law, which is printed in Europe and widely disseminated throughout every part of the Shah's do-

The personal unpopularity of the Shah grows apace and his sons are watching events with no small anxiety. His present youthful Grand Vizier is the child of a nurse, and Nasredine is now anxious to make the obnoxious boy who figured so prominently in the pageants of 1889 Minister of War. The rising is likely to be general and the young Persian party is confident of achieving complete and signal success. The Shah's eldest son is a man of considerable ability, and his second son, who, on account of the royal birth of his mother, is the heir apparent, is popular and amenable to reason.
